

The Last Supper

Luke 22:7-13

Mark 14:17, 22-24, 26

Jerusalem

When the day of the feast of Unleavened Bread arrived, the day for sacrificing the Passover lamb, he sent out Peter and John, instructing them, “Go and make preparations for us to eat the Passover.”

They asked him, “Where do you want us to make the preparations?”

And he answered them, “When you go into the city, a man will meet you carrying a jar of water. Follow him into the house that he enters and say to the master of the house, ‘The teacher says to you, “Where is the guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?”’

He will show you a large upper room that is furnished. Make the preparations there.”

Then they went off and found everything exactly as he had told them, and there they prepared the Passover.

When it was evening, he came with the Twelve.

While they were eating,
he took bread,
said the blessing,
broke it,
and gave it to them, and said,

“Take it; this is my body.”

Then he took a cup,
gave thanks,
and gave it to them,
and they all drank from it.

He said to them,

“This is my blood of the covenant,

which will be shed for many.

Then, after singing a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.
